Dear Ms. Jessye:

In reply to your letter of March 1, I regret that I do not have the materials you are seeking for your fascinating and worthwhile project.

If you have not been successful in finding the photographs you need at Morehouse College, I am sure you would find a wealth of material at Ebony Magazine. They sent a photographer to the premiere of TREEMONISHA and he photographed rehearsals, performances, and the reception that was given after the first performance. The man to contact at Ebony is:

Hamilton J. Bims
Ebony Magazine
820 South Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60605

He is most accommodating and I am sure he will be happy to cooperate. If you wish, you may say that I suggested that you get in touch with him.

Being a long-time admirer of yours, I was pleased to hear from you and to know of the significant project in which you are working.

With best wishes for success,

Very sincerely,

Vera B. Lawrence
